

2.6 Suisun City

A meteorology tower was deployed in a field owned by the Department of Health Services located near the intersection of Goosehaven Road and Lambie Road, Suisun City, CA 94585 (Figure 13). This site is located in the San Francisco Bay area and is about 70 km southwest of Sacramento and 65 km northeast of Oakland. Other than the small buildings located to the southwest and west, the site was relatively clear of any obstructions (Figure 14).
